CALL FOR SELECTION

1. THE ORGANISATION

Piccolo Opera Festival, established in 2007, is a member of Italiafestival and Opera Europa and is now recognised, also internationally, as an original and emerging organisation within European opera festivals.

With the project GO! Borderless Opera Lab included in Borgo Live Academy, Piccolo Opera Festival wants to address the need to create a next-generation European musical theatre, coordinating with similar national and international projects.

Higher education for musical theatre is at the heart of this project and it aims to provide students with the necessary experience and skills to achieve job placement. Particularly important is the opportunity for visibility offered by Nova Gorica and Gorizia, European Capital of Culture 2025. In the first year, special attention is devoted to the production of the opera "Il viaggio a Reims" by Gioachino Rossini (1825-2025), as the official opera of Nova Gorica – Gorizia European Capital of Culture 2025.

2. PURPOSE OF THE COURSE AND TRAINED PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

The Course is aimed at advanced training of the role of Assistant Stage Director/ Stage Manager, a figure with multi-faceted skills: they coordinate and supervise day-to-day work during rehearsals, manage the work of their collaborators, and are responsible for stage safety and the management of related activities. In their role as Assistant Stage Director they manage contacts between the departments (costumes, stage design, make-up) and ensure that all material necessary on stage is present. They follow the direction and note it on their score, and ensure that the preparation (makeup and clothes) of performers is carried out on schedule.

3. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for selection are open to both Italian and foreign candidates, including non-EU citizens, who:

- have reached the age of 18;
- have completed compulsory education.

The following shall constitute preferential (but not mandatory) qualifications:

- Secondary school diploma in music or dance;
- Conservatory Diploma;
- Degree in Visual, Musical and Performing Arts (DAMS);
- Art School Diploma;
- English Language (FIRST or CAE) and Computer (ECDL) certificates.

If the candidate has previous work experience or extracurricular experience in the world of the performing arts consistent with the professional profile covered by this course, this will also be taken into account, although not constituting a preferential qualification.

Foreign candidates are required to have a basic knowledge of Italian.

Non-EU candidates must, at every stage of this course, comply with current immigration laws.

4. DURATION AND VENUE OF THE COURSE

The course is held in Gorizia at the premises of Palazzo Strassoldo, Piazza Sant'Antonio 2.

The duration of the course is 600 hours of training, approximately 400 hours of teaching and 200 hours of project work. The duration of the course is 7 months with approximately 20 hours per week.

Lessons begin in October with a break for Christmas holidays. Then they resume at the beginning of February and conclude at the end of April. From May to July, project work and internship training are scheduled.

5. TRAINING PROGRAMME

Course attendance is full-time and compulsory. Therefore, the Course is incompatible with other study, professional and/or artistic commitments of an ongoing nature.

Any artistic leave for external productions, auditions and competitions shall be authorised in advance by the Academy Management.

A certificate of attendance shall not be issued if a student's absences exceed 30% of the scheduled course hours.

The training programme includes both classroom lessons and workshop activities, the purpose of which is to confront students with the complex production mechanism of the opera house.

Classroom lessons:

Formal analysis and reading of the score; History of theatre; History of musical theatre; History of theatre direction; Theoretical and practical elements of Stage Management; Technical analysis; Study and construction of the production plan; Elements of stagecraft; Elements of lighting engineering; Elements of costume, make-up and hairstyling; Elements of phonics; Elements of IT for live performance; Introduction to the work environment; Safety training standard pursuant to Legislative Decree 81/2008; Technical English for theatre and performing arts; Effective communication and group management.

Masterclasses:

Special emphasis is placed on masterclasses held by industry professionals such as directors and stage managers, which are scheduled throughout the year.

Project Work:

Active experimentation project aimed at testing the applications studied in an artistic production context. Students may be involved in projects and productions by Piccolo Opera Festival in 2025, including:

- the production of the main opera "Il viaggio a Reims" by Gioachino Rossini in collaboration with Gorizia – Nova Gorica European Capital of Culture, Rossini Opera Festival in Pesaro, Slovenian National Theatre in Ljubljana;
- the production of the Festival's main opera "Così fan tutte" by W.A. Mozart to be staged at Teatro di Verzura in Castello di Spessa;
- any chamber opera productions to be staged throughout the year;
- projects dedicated to audience education.
